Pet Peeve: "The Casualization of work wear"

Casual wear is important, however the not caring attitude about what you wear to work has appeared to become the norm.

A few examples of this are people wearing clothing with logos. Another one would be wearing flip flops to work, they belong at the beach! Also wearing cartoon characters on your clothing, if you like Winnie the Pooh then wear him on your pyjamas.

Rule of Thumb

If you don't have fit, you have nothing. Fit is the key and learning the basics go a long way. Also colour is another rule, stick to it and step away from the black (which by the way is not a colour) and challenge yourself everyday to wear colour. Once you do you'll never look back.

One thing I know...

If you look good, you feel good!

Margaret Gallant is the image consultant with the knack, knowledge, passion and the experience.

Imagine...

The self-confidence, the freedom, the joy of knowing you look your very best.

Imagine...

A closet full of clothes that you love and enjoy wearing.

Imagine...

An end to the questions "Is it in?" "Is it right?" "Is it me?"

Whatever your age, size and shape, lifestyle, career, or budget, Margaret can help you maximize your assets and gain confidence while you save money and answer the age old question of what to wear?
